

2023 Families Feeding Friends Volunteer Plans

So no one goes hungry.

Southington Bread for Life's Families Feeding Friends Program provides volunteer and community service opportunities for families of children in preschool & elementary school.

This year, Bread for Life will be hosting monthly opportunities. Registration is required for all events, and information will be sent out monthly, so please keep an eye on your e-mails and save the dates!

September 30

Families Feeding Friends will meet to create placemats for our annual Soup Night Event.

November 18

Volunteers will meet to make mini pies for our homebound clients.

December (TBD)

This month, families will create holiday treats that will be sent home to our clients.
